 - Listened to the Town Manager's report on various administrative matters.
 - Listened to an update from the Community Builders regarding the planned housing project on Jerome Smith. The price tag for the project increased to $38 million and at least a $3 million financial commitment is needed from the town to move forward. In addition, a $3 million gap needs to be closed via other funding sources. It is possible construction could start on the project in H1-2024.
 - Listened to a proposal to increase the hourly wage for seasonal hourly employees. Fiscal impact will be approximately $100,000 for FY23.
 - Listened to a proposal to modify the compensation and classifications for 135 full-time town employees (87 union and 48 non-union). The proposal will result in higher compensation for nearly 90% of employees. The raises will move slightly more than 40% of employees to the new minimum for their job range. 50% of employees will also receive a longevity adjustment of 1-3%. The fiscal impact for FY23 is approximately $440,000. The raises will be funded with internal budget adjustments. The FY24 budget will need to reflect the higher compensation levels and a second wave of adjustments that will be required for some employees (a 10% maximum increase is permitted annually under the new system). Full-time hourly employees also need to be addressed. No one discussed it but it is possible a budget override will be required to balance the FY24 budget.
